Those Prohibits Who Got Booze. Unanimous on one point—that the rain Sunday night was a great blessing. Plattsburg was certainly hot and dry—business dull, except the soda fountain business—about as quiet as those Prohibitionists who got that booze.—Clinton County Democrat.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
STATE OF MISSOURI
County of Buchanan ss.
In the Buchanan County Circuit Court, to the October Term, A. D. 1916.
Jennie A. Russell, Plaintiff, vs. Clarence L. Russell, Defendant.
Now at this day came the plaintiff by her attorney, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Clerk of said Court, in vacation, that said defendant, Clarence L. Russell, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and does not reside therein, it is ordered that said non-resident be notified by publication, as required by law, that said plaintiff has commenced her suit in this court against said defendant, by petition and affidavit, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds that the defendant has offered to plaintiff such indignities as to render plaintiff's condition intolerable, by scolding, contumacious nagging, threatening, manifesting towards her a cross and irritable temper and disposition, and failing to contribute to plaintiff's support, and by absconding himself from plaintiff for more than one whole year next before the filing of said petition without a reasonable cause; that unless the said defendant, Clarence L. Russell, shall be and appear at the next term of this Court to be begun and held at the Court House in the City of St. Joseph, in Buchanan County, State of Missouri, on the 2nd day of October, A. D. 1916, on or before the third day of said term, to answer plaintiff's petition, the same will be taken for confessed as to him, the defendant, and judgment rendered accordingly.
It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the St. Joseph Observer, a newspaper published in the County of Buchanan, for four weeks successively, the last insertion of which to be at least fifteen days before the next October, A. D. 1916, term of this Court.
A true copy. Attest:
ROSS C. COX, Clerk.
